Puebloans Are Grateful For Quake Relief

Residents of the Pueblo, in a letter addressed to the city council this week, expressed their "deep appreciation to the city of Torrance as well as to the American Red Cross for the manner in which we were aided at the time of the earthquake."

The letter continues: "Our sincere appreciation is that our safety and that of our children was very much in consideration by this city and our accommodations at the Civic Auditorium were made as pleasant as was humanly possible under the circumstances, for which we are ever so grateful."

"There are no words with which to express our eternal gratitude and appreciation for all you have done for us, and so we close thanking you one and all for your sincere efforts in helping us—(signed) The Residents of Pueblo."
